Champagne and Wine

Champagne

2007 Taittinger Comtes de Champagne, Champagne, France

Champagne, with its cold climate, famous limestone soils and magnificent history, is home to the world's most famous sparkling wines. Family-owned for almost a century, Taittinger is one of the greatest independent Houses and Comtes de Champagne is their highly respected and revered prestige cuvée. Comtes de Champagne is made from 100% Chardonnay from Grand Cru villages in the Côte des Blancs - Avize, Cramant, Chouilly, Mesnil-sur-Oger and Oger. This is a brilliant champagne and a textbook example of Blanc de Blancs at its best, displaying great intensity and acid line, with complex and classic toasty notes from over 10 years of aging in bottle. Spectacular!

Krug Grande Cuvée, Champagne, France

Krug is undisputably one of the greatest Champagne Houses, and Grande Cuvée the archetype of their craftsmanship and savoir-faire. This prestige cuvée is a blend of more than 120 wines from ten or more different years. The champagne is then aged for a further 6 years in the cellars prior to release. Over 20 years are needed to craft each bottle. Stylistically, Grande Cuvée combines power with finesse- a brilliant Champagne of great quality and individuality.

White

2016 Gustave Lorentz Riesling Grand Cru Altenberg de Bergheim, Alsace, France

Wine regions are often intensely beautiful, but there are few to compare with Alsace in northeastern France. Tiny villages that appear unchanged for a thousand years cling to slopes that delve in and out of valleys and clefts in the sombre, wooded Vosges mountains. On these sunny slopes are some of France's greatest Grand Cru vineyards. The Altenberg vineyard at Bergheim, now organically cultivated, has been Grand Cru since the 12th Century, and the Lorentz family have farmed it for 7 generations. Their Riesling is from old vines and is gloriously dry, with the quivering acid freshness of lemon pith and lime zest, all wrapped in the richness of honeycomb and the dusty golden warmth of a barley field at harvest time.

2017 Domaine Laroche Chablis 1er Cru "Montée de Tonnerre", Burgundy, France

Headquartered in L'Obédiencerie, a former monastery in the village of Chablis in which monks had made wines from the 9th century, Domaine Laroche is directly linked to the history of the region. Winemaker Grégory Viennois works in tune with nature, encouraging low yields and natural ecology to produce fruit that is true to individual vineyard origins. "Montée de Tonnerre" is a south-west oriented vineyard and is merely separated from the Grand Cru "Les Blanchots" by a narrow ravine. The wine is a subtle mix of finesse and intensity, and its beauty is revealed by a long ageing in French oak foudre. The nose and palate reveals notes of star anise and spice, with a subtle, salty finish.

Red

2016 Albert Bichot Nuits-Saint-Georges 1er Cru "Château Gris" Monopole, Burgundy, France

The Château Gris castle was built in the 18th century in the middle of its 3.5 ha (8.6 acre) walled vineyard. After the vineyards were destroyed by phylloxera, the roof of the castle was covered with grey slate although tiles are the traditional material used in Burgundy. The people of Nuits-Saint-Georges therefore began to refer to it as Château Gris (grey castle) and the name stuck. Further to a court ruling in the 1920s, the name "Château Gris" was allowed to prevail over the name of the place (lieu-dit) "Les Crots" where the vines are planted. The vines are planted on terraces that cling to the slope at an altitude of 280 metres. The plots of land at the foot of the castle produce Nuits-Saint-Georges Premier Cru "Château Gris" red, while those at higher altitudes are planted with Chardonnay grapes and entitled to produce the white Nuits-Saint-Georges "Les Terrasses".

2005 Château Rauzan-Ségla, Margaux, Bordeaux, France

The wines from the village of Margaux are considered among the most scented, supple and intriguing of all the wines of Bordeaux. Château Rauzan-Ségla has for hundreds of years been regarded as one of the village's greatest properties, along with Château Margaux itself. So it made perfect sense when the perfume and fashion house of Chanel bought the vineyard in 1994, with the objective of turning Rauzan-Ségla's wine into a reflection of the scents and glamour which Chanel embodied. 2005 is a vintage which shows Rauzan in all its brilliance. It is one of the great vintages of this century and Rauzan excels - dark, rich, packed with warm, black fruit, but also lifted by its famous floral scent and a lingering suggestion of graphite from the stony vineyard soil.

2018 Magari Gaja Ca'marcanda Bolgheri DOP

Primary flavors of blackcurrant and plum show a pleasant tangy edge that lends verve to this Bordeaux-style blend. Its tannins are like new leather, firmly guiding the fruit tones without overwhelming them. Hints of licorice and graphite emerge with air, and the dark fruit mingles with iodine notes on the long, seamless finish. This is a delicious and elegant rendering of Magari.

Fortified

Graham's 20 Year Old Tawny Port

With twenty years of cask aging, this Port has acquired a gorgeous aroma of dried flowers, toffee, sweet spices and dried figs. The tannins have softened and evolved into a silky texture with subtle, layered flavours that are persistent on the finish. A beautifully balanced Port that can be enjoyed on its own or with cheese or dessert.
